

The Uozu Buried Forest Museum and Hongo Sake Brewery (Tentative) Wed, June 29, 2016

AM : Conference

Sasaraya

Ocean Rest Stop
"Mirage"

Lunch

Uozu Buried Forest Museum

Hongo Sake Brewery

Conference venue

Banquet

Sasaraya

◆ Factory tour + Hand-baked "Senbei (rice cracker)" experience

◆ You can hand bake Toyama's famous "Shiroebi Senbei" and taste them hot and fresh. "Shiroebi Senbei" are hand-baked rice crackers made from Toyama-grown rice and local broad velvet shrimp.

Link to website ↓

Sasaraya

Ocean Rest Stop "Mirage"

◆ Lunch at the famous ocean rest stop

◆ Check out the mirage viewing area and the delicious food of Toyama at this rest stop. At lunch, you can enjoy fresh seafood from the Port of Uozu!

Hongo Sake Brewery

◆ Brewery tour and Sake tasting

◆ The Hongo Sake Brewery was founded by Miyauchi Yoshiro in 1925 in Uozu. It has since been producing sake that goes with seafood.

Uozu Buried Forest Museum

◆ Visiting the Uozu Buried Forest Museum

◆ This museum introduces two of Toyama's wonders to visitors: the buried forest (Special Natural Monument of Japan) and the mirage. The mirage of Toyama Bay, which has been famous in Japan since the Edo period, remains a familiar seasonal feature and continues to fascinate countless people.

Link to website ↓

Uozu Buried Forest Museum